Our Principal

Congratulations, you made it!

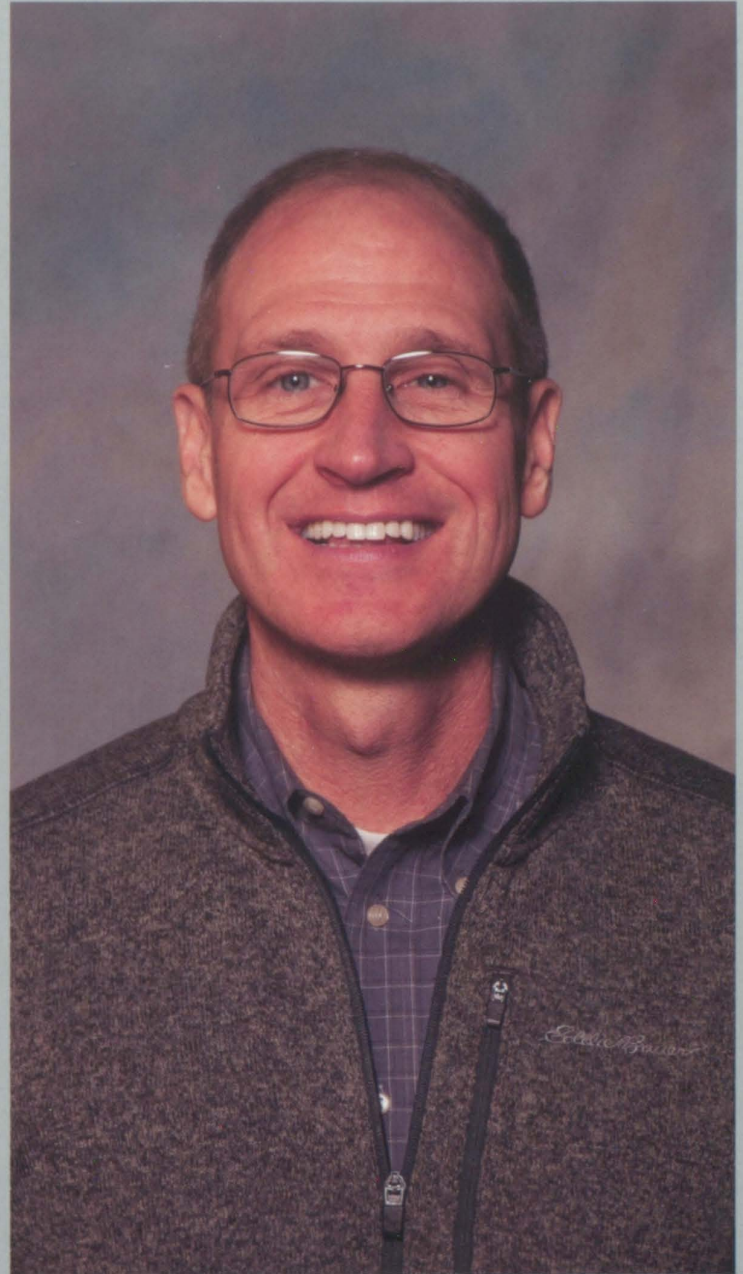

It is my great honor to share a few words with you regarding your time here at East Side High School. First, let me say I am so proud of each and every senior graduating this year. You have made the most of your four years here at East Side High School and now this is your special day to share with everyone. Moreover, the countless hours of studying, taking tests, revising, editing papers, making presentations, practices, games and performances has finally come to fruition – hard work always wins! You have showed all of us that your experience here at East Side High School has been not just about academics but about compassion and friendship found among and within fellow graduates. You are a unique class that will always make East Side High School very proud.

Alas, as your new Principal, I am so pleased to be part of this momentous day in your life.

This is now your time to take action – If not you, then who?

Good luck in everything you do and all the best!

To the class of 2019,

You've not only fulfilled requirements you have conquered fears, reached goals, and succeeded far beyond your wildest dreams and when you think about the last four years, you'll probably remember that some of your greatest lessons came from outside the classroom. That's a good reminder that learning doesn't stop just because you received your diploma. Continue to grow, conquer, and succeed. Congratulations!!!

Once an East Sider... Always an East Sider!!!

A Fond Farewell

Virginia Werner

It has been a career of many opportunities! Having spent most of my life in Newark it seemed fitting that upon graduating from Kean University with a degree in Health and Physical Education to work for the Newark Public Schools. It was a way to give back that which had been given to me. I started my career at the elementary school level in the Ironbound. During that time, I also pursued my Master's Degree in Education at Montclair State University. As fate would have it, this was also a time of budget constraints and after a few years I found myself unemployed. I used this time to substitute teach and complete my master's degree.

Little did I know what lay ahead! My next opportunity was here at East Side High School where I became part of the Health and Physical Education Department. I taught not only health and physical education classes but also CPR/AED and first aid. I have also had the opportunity to attend the Cowin Financial Literacy Institute at Columbia University to become certified to teach Financial Literacy.

Not only have I enjoyed teaching on the high school level but I have also had the opportunity to coach or to help coach the softball, cheerleading and tennis teams.

Additionally, I helped to bring back the swim and volleyball teams. Once the boys' lacrosse team began to gain popularity it became apparent our school needed a girls' lacrosse team and I fortunately was given the opportunity to start a team.

As I take a moment to look back at a most fulfilling career I am grateful for the students and colleagues that I have met along the way and as we say here at East Side grateful for the chance "to live the dream!"

Tracey Tucker

The year is 1984 and it is a warm early September morning and the weather is beautiful. (Please take a moment and travel with me back to the year 1984. It is an early September morning with beautiful warm weather.) After catching two buses and walking 3 blocks, I had finally arrived at my destination – East Side High School. As I entered the building, checked in with Security to find out where the office was located, made my way to the office and informed the Secretary that I was there to speak with the principal, Mrs. Cardiello, she had me take a seat. As I sat there I had mixed emotions – I was estastic that I finally had a job in the career that I had always dreamed about and nervous because I had just entered a very large unfamiliar building, with people I didn't know. I was about to become an influence in educating and inspiring young classified individuals to become responsible pillars in society.

As I sit here and reflect on my memories of the time that I have spent at East Side High, there have been some creative, wonderful, exciting moments: such as Mrs. Steele's Christmas parties, the conversations with my co-workers in the teacher's lounges, offices, or at breakfast in the cafeteria, school leadership committees and field trips (thank you Ms. Murray), plays and performances by students and teachers, being a mentor to fellow teachers and students (shout out to New Jersey Regional Day and Mrs. Wiseman), football and basketball games as Cheerleading coach (Let's Go ~ East Side ~ Let's Go), chaperoning parties in the cafeteria; just to name a few things. Also there was some upsetting moments that I view as lessons in life that helped me to grow and develop my character.

So many years ago, I entered a very large unfamiliar building, with people that I didn't know. As I exit this building, I have the pleasure of saying that I have visited or walked through nearly every room, every stairwell, every hallway, and every office. I have conversed with and found people I am proud to consider part of my family. I have developed beautiful and lasting friendships with administrators, teachers, and students. I have been blessed to work with former students inside this building, have met so many of them outside in the community or during visits to East Side High, and have had the opportunity to teach some of my former student's children. I can honestly say that I have enjoyed teaching an awesome group of young men and women who just needed someone to care, listen, and show them the skills and gifts that they already have within and how to use it in a productive way with the new knowledge acquired in school.

Continuing his education, in 2005 he finished his Master of Arts in Educational Administration at Kean University.

During the 1996/1997 school year, he served as the Principal of St. James Portuguese School in Newark. In 2013/2014 he was the Director of Luis de Camoes, Portuguese School, in Newark.

In 1998, he moved to Portugal, where he taught high school Mathematics for three years. September 2001, Abilio returned to the United States, and was re-hired by the Newark Board of Education.

In 2010, Abilio DeBarros, became an Adjunct Professor at Union County College and later on in 2017 he transferred to NJIT, where he became an Adjunct Professor.

Abilio DeBarros received the Community Service award from COPAE (Congress of Portuguese American Educators) in 1998. He was Essex County Coach of the Year in 2005 and was recognized by the City of Newark Municipal Council for services to the community in 2006.

Abilio DeBarros has taught and has had a positive impact on the lives of thousands of students throughout his career and is honored to be able to call Newark East Side High School his home. He leaves a legacy that includes former students, who are now teachers at East Side, as well as former students who have become entrepreneurs with established businesses in the community. Relationships have always been the foundation of his teaching success and they have enriched the beautiful road Abilio is honored to call his career.

Augustino Delallave

Mr. De La Llave graduated Monmouth University in 1973 and worked in a photographic laboratory for several years.

In 1981 he entered the teacher certification program at Montclair State University. After two and a half years of attending courses in the evening, after work, he was certified to teach social studies at the high school level.

During his studies, he requested to be assigned to Newark East Side for his Senior field experience. One reason was that Mr. Ds mother had attended East Side, the other reason was that he wanted to work with the Portuguese students with whom he shared a cultural background.

From February to May of 1984, he student taught at East Side High School when Mrs Cardiellos was the Principal.

After working at a state vocational school and Morristown HS, he was hired to work at East Side in 1998 as a History Teacher.

Mr. D will be remembered for his caring attitude and dedication to his students and colleagues. His smile was contagious and his honesty an example to all.

Congratulations on your retirement. May your new journey be filled with joy!

*Congratulations

You made it!

SENIOR CLASS 2019

Seniors,

We finished! Who would have thought that the day we have all been anxiously looking forward to would be so sad? Four years felt like forever for the past three and a half years, but now that we are nearing the end of our time at East Side it feels like it all went by too fast. Some of us are grateful for this, and others want to relish in the moment, as we are all as young as we will ever be.

No matter what each one of us says, high school did change us in so many ways. Many of us have found out more about ourselves and who we want to be within these walls than anywhere else thus far. Some of us have made lifetime friendships, met mentors whom have changed our perspective on ourselves. As simple as that sounds, we have lived through these four years enjoying adolescence, while prepping and planning for our future. That makes these last four years the most precious time each of our lives.

While it may seem as if I am embellishing the high school experience, I hope when we look back on our final year at East Side, and we come across this letter, everyone will find at least one piece of this letter to be true to them. We are all different, but we are all young people about to enter the real world of adulthood. We are now the people we have wanted to be all our lives, adults. With this new power, we can be the change we have always wanted to see, whether it be politically, socially, or just within our family. We can be the change. I encourage you all to be the change in some way; to be the Pluto in our societal universe. You all harness the power and strength that change commands. I truly cannot wait until I see how we all change the world. Congratulations Class of 2019. We've finished.

I would like to write this message for my teammates who have changed me for the better and who have taught me not to put my head down. These girls who I love spending time with, run to practice, and just be with them. I will miss the hangouts after practice and games, where we bonded and got closer. I will miss going to the trainers room just so we can be with each other a little longer. Many of you girls, have been with me forever and I wouldn't want anyone else on my team. You all bring out the best in me and I love you all for that!

Unforgettable Memories

As high school comes to an end, I can say these 4 years brought unforgettable memories. I have met incredible people that I can truly say have impacted my life in unbelievable ways. I've created bonds and made memories that will be cherished for a lifetime.

Although we will all go our separate ways, I am confident that we we will cross paths again. High School has been one hell of a ride, and East Side has provided me with such an amazing experience. I am excited to see what the future holds for me and my fellow classmates. I want to thank all the people that have supported me and motivated me to exceed my expectations. To the Class of 2019, I wish you all the best of luck in all that is yet to come. May you be blessed with greater opportunities and may you live a life of happiness, love and lots of wealth. This is the beginning to something so great for you all, so remember, dare to be great. Once an East Sider, Always an East Sider.

~Ashley Monteiro~

I honestly can't believe that these four years are almost up. This school expanded my knowledge on different cultures and different people. I've grown an unbreakable bond with my girls Alana and Josilyn. I met different people who gave me a different outlook on life. I've had such devoted teachers who care about me and what I plan on doing in life. I even formed a sort of unbreakable bond with someone whom I hope stays my life. I really can't believe that nearly four years ago I was a 15 year old child and now I'm an 18 year old young woman, getting ready to experience this bitter sweet world. But with all the knowledge and love I got in East Side, I know that I'll make it as far as want. And with that I want to say "Good Bye East Side High School". I cant wait to see what the next chapter of my life has in store for me.

~Andrea Jackson~

High school has been the greatest experience of my life so far, I'm glad to say that I've met tons of amazing people, teachers, friends and I got close to the ones I love. I got to meet new people that I'm now glad to call my "close friends". Some have grown apart from me, but that's okay because life is a cycle where things come and go, what is left to do is enjoy the moment, the present, and live to the fullest, because nothing lasts forever. High School showed me that it is very important to appreciate those who got your back when you are at your lowest point, they will be there to help you succeed. All my teachers throughout the four years have been amazing, and shout out to Mr. Donovan for giving that push that I was so scared to approach, that's where it all started... East Side High school is where opportunities are. East Side will be in my heart for the rest of my life, it opened doors to so many new things. Thank you East Side for giving me this experience, and remember "Once An East Sider Always an East Sider".

~Hazel Alfaro~

Dear EastSide's Senior Class,
During my four years at East Side High, located in the Ironbound of Newark, I can honestly say I've had the time of my life. I've experienced good times and also the bad. With exceptional help from the East Sides's staff & teachers, they've helped build me into the person I am today. Although I'd miss it, It's time for me to apply my knowledge somewhere else. All four years I've maintained a 3.1 and higher which I thought I could never have done, but the people who believed in me helped make it happen. I am grateful for my time and experience in East Side High. I've lived, learned, gained friends and lost friends but most of all I found myself. Best luck to all

"So I guess it ends, we'll go our separate ways and hope that we'll see each other somewhere in the future"

~Carisa Loyal~

Unforgettable Memories

" High school has been one of my best experiences in school so far not going to lie. I've learned so much within these last four year of high school. I've learned how to choose right from wrong. It wasn't easy, I've lost friends along the way, but as time passed I made new ones and they stuck. I want to give a shout out to one of my closest friends that's been with me since freshman year. Hazell Alfaro i want to give thanks to her for being by my side when I needed it and she knows that no matter what I've always got her back. also throughout high school I've met amazing teachers that are always there when you need a bit of life advice, also to all the counselors that have dealt with our stuff for the past four years and always pushing us on top with our work. High school had showed me that life It'd not easy, we have to work hard to get what we want. It showed me how to be mature and learn how to become a independent woman... well half way. I'm proud to be an EastSider. ""Once an EastSider Always An EastSider!" And always keep this in mind throughout college "Dare to Be Great""

~Dennise Gomez~

"These past four years have been the worst and the best, I became friends with people I never thought I would be friends with, and I'm super grateful.

I have strong bonds with my teachers and they've taught me so much as well.

Joining Big Picture was possibly the best decision that I've ever made and I don't regret it not one bit. High school was a movie!"

~Alana Majano~

"High School thank you for giving me friends that I will cherish my whole life. I've been through some ups and downs. But I've had people by my side to pick me back up again. These past 4 years have been a roller coaster. But its would be one that I would never get off of. I've learned right from wrong. I've learned those to keep in my life and those to get away from from and learned just to be a better person overall. High School your my movie that's coming to a close and i wouldn't change anything from it.

Once and EastSider always and EastSider.

-Judith Zeta-

" The main thing I've learned these past 4 year is to stay true to yourself and never switch up. Friends come and go but you have yourself FOREVER!"
